

To Whom It May Concern:

I have owned three Xerox Phaser printers since March 2003. Currently I own the Phaser 8860. I have been extremely pleased with the exceptional quality and reliability of all three Phaser units. I have always received very professional and timely service from both my sales and service representatives.

Even though I am a small business, I feel that the quality of print and image that it portrays has made the Phaser printers a very worthwhile investment.

Sincerely,
